JOYCE LYNN KOEPKE
... Sets Aug. 26 date

Joyce Koepke Will Wed James Carter in Colfax

Miss Joyce Lynn Koepke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Koepke, 1527 W. 219th St. who have lived in this area for the past 15 years, will be married on Aug. 26 to James Carter of Lomita. The Koepke family is moving to Colfax, Calif. next week and the wedding will take place at the Catholic Church in Colfax on Aug. 26.

The bride-elect was born and reared here. She attended Narbonne High school. Her future husband, a graduate of Anaheim High school, is serving with the United States Navy aboard the USS Korsage. He will complete his tour of duty in August 1961.

Last Wednesday evening, Miss Joan Bunch entertained at a miscellaneous shower complimenting the bride-to-be. Umbrellas and flowers in the pastel shades were used in decorating. A large decorated cake centered the dining table.

Games were played and the honoree opened her shower of gifts. The hostess served refreshments. Bringing gifts were Mrs. Ernest Koepke and Joan and Bonnie Koepke, Jerri Provost, Mary Garcia, Lorraine Vigeant, Frankie Ward, Caroline Pisel, Nicki Daniels, Hilda Hazel, Ellen Pope, and Marie Bunch, all of Torrance.

The girls are now selling tickets for the show in Mayco's campus shop.

New Officers Preside At Club Meet Mayco's Fall Fashion Show Slated Aug. 17

Torrance Lioness Club held its first meeting under the leadership of new officers at the home of Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, 905 Patronella Ave. Mrs. Ray Wyatt, new president, was in charge.

New officers introduced were Mrs. Dale Harter, first vice president; Mrs. Mott Farrell, second vice president; Mrs. Paul Byrnan, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Clark, treasurer; Mrs. Alfred Radisch, hairpuller and Mrs. Cecil Powell, bulletin editor.

Mrs. Wyatt announced her chairmen for the year. They are Mrs. Sam Van Wagner, hostess; Mrs. Ralph Morris, membership; Mrs. Ike McTee, sunshine; Mrs. William Zapas, telephone; Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, publicity and Mrs. Newell Larson, auditor.

Attending were 24 members and one guest, Mrs. Ester Ackerman of Monrovia, houseguest of Mrs. W. Hickcox.

Members of the Lioness club joined their husbands for a dinner dance at the Mira Mar Hotel in Santa Monica Saturday evening.

The next meeting will be a "Whisk" party at the home of Mrs. John Ritchie, 4037 Hawthorne Ave., Palos Verdes on Aug. 16.

Plans are underway for a party honoring wives of new members of the Lions club of Torrance.

College girls, 1960: Mayco's fashion kaleidoscope breaks Aug. 17.

Mayco's gigantic 1960 college show promises to stir up a storm of fun and fashion for coeds of the greater Los Angeles area at fabulous Pacific Ocean Park next Wednesday.

"College Kaleidoscope 1960" will show a bright, new array of fall fashions ahead for both on campus and off. Sportswear, campus separates, date clothes, coats, suits and formals in best new colors, textures and shapes will be presented in the 1960 fashion forecast.

Fashion conscious coeds will love these new over-sized shaggy sweaters, the many pleated skirts in plaids and tweeds with overblouse jersey tops, and the variety of colorful light-weight coats. Blazing colors in sportswear plus additional emphasis on brilliant accessories of velveteen hats and handbags will also be previewed in the fashion parade.

More excitement after the fashion preview with spectacular rides and amusement centers on hand for the college misses. Over forty buses will leave all seven Mayco stores to transport the young ladies to and from the Oceanside park. Complete box lunches will be served on the buses.

Tickets, which include transportation, lunch, admission (courtesy of Pacific Ocean Park), all rides, and fashion show, are now available in the campus shops of all seven May Company store at a nominal fee.

Crafts Show

The final crafts party and show will be held on the Lomita Elementary school grounds tomorrow (Friday), Aug. 12 at 1:30 p.m. All parents are invited to attend.

On Tuesday, Aug. 16 the play "A Cross Princess" will be presented at 2 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the Lomita PTA.

A puppet show will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 17 at 3:45 p.m.
